Forecast For West Midlands
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Sunday 24 Jan 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Cold and dry start, turning wetter later in the week.

This Evening and Tonight:
Any remaining daytime wintry precipitation clears through the evening to give a clear, dry night with widespread frost and a risk of ice. Temperatures turn locally very cold where any snow lies. Minimum temperature -10 deg C (14 deg F).

Monday:
Freezing fog lingers for a time in the north, though this should clear into the afternoon to give a largely dry and sunny day. Cold, especially where any snow lies. Maximum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Cloudy with light rain Tuesday, before turning drier into Wednesday. Further rain, locally heavy then arrives into the night with strong winds. Drier with sunny spells Thursday.
